Your typed or printed letter of appeal should answer the following questions. NOTE: if you are only appealing due to poor academic performance, you must answer questions 1-3. If you are appealing the 150% of credit hours attempted limitation, answer question 4 only. If you are appealing for both reasons, answer all questions.

1. Why did you fail to make Satisfactory Academic Progress? To what do you attribute your poor academic performance? NOTE: Please include explanations of all Withdrawals (W's), Failures (F's), and In-completes (I's) as well as an explanation of a GPA below 2.0 either for the semester and/or cumulatively.
2. What has changed that will allow you to make Satisfactory Academic Progress at the next evaluation? What measures have you taken to solve the problems or change the circumstances that lead to your academic difficulty?
3. If your cumulative GPA is not the 2.0 graduation requirement, what steps will you take to correct this?
4. If you have not completed your degree in the allowed 150% of credit hours time frame, what extenuating circumstances have hindered your ability to complete your two year degree?
